SENATE BILL NO. 1099

RECEIVED BY:

INTRODUCED BY SENATOR JOSEPH VICTOR G. EJERCITO

AN ACT

DETERRING AND PUNISHING THE ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF CRIMINAL STREET GANGS, RECRUITMENT OF INDIVIDUALS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE COMMISSION OF GANG CRIMES AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Under the inherent police power of the State, it has the authority to define and punish crimes and to lay down the rules of criminal procedure. States, as part of their police power, have a large measure of discretion in creating and defining criminal offenses.

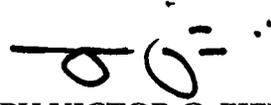

Statistics would show that over the years, there has been an increase in victims of "Akyat Bahay", "Budol-budol", "Laglag Barya", "Ipit Taxi" and "Dugodugo" and other crimes committed wherein its malefactors act in an organized and concerted manner to ensure successful consummation of their intended act. While apparently being isolated crimes, the truth thereof is that the same is being consummated by organized crime groups, albeit some are merely small scale organizations.

In 2006, Republic Act 9344, otherwise known as the "Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act of 2006", took effect. While the same is a good statute aimed at the reformation and protection of children at risk, or children in conflict with the law and obviously inspired by the positivist theories of criminal law, organized criminal groups have taken advantage of the law by employing misguided minors in executing their unlawful designs.

It is thus intended that through the passage of this Bill, it will effectively define and punish acts connected with the operation, recruitment of members, of street gangs which has been difficult to prosecute in the past by reason of the absence of punitive law declaring the same unlawful, thereby protecting the innocent public under the principle of Salus Populi Est Suprema Lex. The welfare of the people is the supreme law.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this measure is earnestly sought.
